FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT LAST SUNDAY NIGHT

Percy Farnam Killed When Car Overturns; Cause Is Not Known

On Sunday night at about eight o'clock Percy Farnam, nephew of Mrs. Pfeffer, who lives in the Reid Hill district, was instantly killed in an auto accident which occurred about 3 miles north of Mr. Pfeffer's farm, and nine miles from Vulcan.

Mr. Farnam was employed by Mr. Fred Mensinger. On the day of the accident he visited the home of Mrs. Pfeffer at about half past two o'clock in the afternoon, and stayed until four o'clock, when he took a friend of his home in the auto and returned to Mrs. Pfeffer's farm. Shortly before the time of the accident he left the farm for Mr. Mensinger's place and the next thing Mrs. Pfeffer knew was that her nephew had had an accident and was killed. It appears that Mr. Tony Spankie was proceeding along the road in his car when he saw another car overturned. He stopped and got out and found Mr. Farnam underneath quite dead. No exact idea of how the accident occurred can be formed, but it is presumed that Mr. Farnam, who was driving without lights, must have been dazzled by a passing car and lost control. The car he was driving was a Ford, the back of which was converted into a wagon.

The parents of the dead man were immediately communicated with and they are at present on their way from Washington. The funeral will take place after they have arrived.

A HAPPY L.U.B.A. SOCIAL

On Tuesday evening of this week the young ladies and girls of the Vulcan congregation were entertained by Mesdames Lebow and Embree at the Church. Quite a large number were present and thoroughly enjoyed themselves in pastimes, music, and an old-fashioned spelling match. A concert program was given by the following: Miss Mason, piano solo; vocal duets by Mrs. Isham and Mrs. McAlpine; piano selections by Mrs. Embree; Gaelic songs by Mr. McQueen and Gaelic choruses by Miss McGlelland. Mrs. Embree recited several very witty numbers. One of the features that was surprisingly unusual were the Gaelic songs of Mr. McQueen. There was much interest to see who could spell best under the test of Miss Travis, Miss Mason eventually proving the one to last the longest under the severe test, Miss McClelland being runner-up. After refreshments the party broke up under the expectation of another L.U.B.A. social in the near future.

REID HILL AND KIRKCALDY SERVICES

Mr. L. E. Brough, of Red Deer, who preached at the Reid Hill and Kirkcaldy churches last Sunday, has been prevailed upon to preach there again on Sunday, October 13th. This he has consented to do and services will be held at the two places as follows: Reid Hill Sunday School at 11 o'clock, preaching at noon and 7:30 in the evening; Kirkcaldy, Sunday School at 2:30 and preaching at 3:30. All friends are cordially invited.

DIED—On Thursday, October 3rd, Jerome Eugene, aged 2 months, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fortier, of Vulcan. The funeral was held from the residence to the Oddfellows hall on Friday, October 4th at 3 o'clock, the Rev. Fr. Smith of High River officiating. Interment took place in the Vulcan cemetery.

EVANGELISTIC MISSION

A hearty invitation is given to the whole community of village and country to attend the undenominational revival meetings of Evangelist Robinson and his party, who commence their meetings in the Vulcan Church on Sunday, October 13th. Week night meetings will be held. It is earnestly hoped that all who can will help in the choir work of these services. The party comprises Rev. W. L. Bennett, advance man, Mr. A. C. Gilmore, director of song, and Miss Niven.

STAMPEDE IS A BIG SUCCESS

The Stampede last Wednesday drew a large crowd to Vulcan, and there were over 1,500 people on the grounds to see the day's sports. That people also came from a distance is found in the fact that there were 221 cars in the enclosure.

The results in the various events were as follows:

Free-for-all: 1 John Wayne; 2 J. S. Smith; Pony race: 1 John Wayne; Ladies Race: 1 J. Wayne; Relay Race: 1 John Wayne; Cowboy Race: 1 J. S. Smith; Barrel Race: 1 L. A. Douglas; 2 E. Beeststone; Wild Horse Race: 1 J. Alberson; 2 W. Mason; Bareback Riding: 1 W. Mason, 2 Dick Neil; Saddle Riding: 1 Clef Stone, Clarence Davis; Steer Riding: 1 Glen Jarrett, 2 F. Mathews.

Two accidents occurred. In the barrel race "Dutch" Wynot got in a mix-up, falling between two horses. They jammed him pretty badly and he was injured on the stomach. W. Mason's mount ran into the fence during the wild horse race. The animal ran into a post which caught Mason on the back, knocking him unconscious. Fortunately no bones were broken in either accident. Stone rode two horses which ran into the fence but he was able to leave them before they took the wire. One of them jumped clean over the fence and landed between two cars where there was just room for it.

A shooting accident in which two men were injured with one bullet occurred at the weekend. Messrs. Miles Anderson of the Vulcan Co-Operative company, and Lorne Bailey were out hunting coyotes, when the gun went off accidentally. The bullet passed through a leg of both men.

THE CANADIAN ARMY COMMAND—A report comes from France by way of London that Major-General Sir Arthur Currie is to be transferred to command one of the British army corps and that he is to be succeeded as commander of the Canadian army by Major-General Sir David Watson, of Quebec. This photograph shows the Duke of Connaught shaking hands with General Watson, while General Currie looks on, on the left.

TRIED TO SHOOT UP CHINESE RESTAURANT

A Gunman Introduces Wild West Stunt in Town On Stampede Day

Wednesday was not without its thrills in town as well as on the stampede grounds, for the fracas at the Queen cafe in the evening was a real life and death matter. Fortunately it terminated with no lives lost.

It appears that at about seven o'clock in the evening three strangers, under the influence of drink, went into the Queen Cafe and ordered supper. One of them required a better sauce than the H.P., and quarrelled with the Chinaman, Jang Gett, who was attending the table. As a consolation to his injured appetite, one of the diners broke all the crockery, and then proceeded to enter into an argument with Gett as to the price of the meal. While this was in progress one of the other men got behind the counter and made towards the till with the idea of robbing it. After that it was a case of fight. A knife was used on Gett and he was badly cut across the left eye. In self defence he produced a revolver from behind the till, but before he could use it it was wrested from him and he was knocked to the floor, unconscious. Shots were fired, what for no one knows, as no one was hit, and by the time that the noise of the battle had reached outside ears the three men had cleared off, leaving behind them an unconscious Chinaman and a very much wrecked cafe. Since then nothing further has been heard of them.

Jang Gett was immediately taken for medical attention.

Mr. J. J. Duffell of High River, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Clappison of Vulcan, who was recently taken to the hospital at High River, suffering with typhoid fever, is making good progress toward recovery.

The Kirkcaldy Red Cross Society wishes to acknowledge a donation of $5 from Mrs. Clements. The Society also wishes to thank Mrs. J. Pontney and Mrs. Gossett for their successful efforts in collecting so many donations.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck motored to Calgary last Thursday. Mr. Buck returned on Saturday. Mrs. Buck broke the journey at High River and is visiting friends there until this weekend.

The death of Mrs. Hugh McIntosh took place at the home near Lomond on Monday, Oct. 7th, after a prolonged illness. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. Ainley, who formerly lived in High River, and for several years Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh resided in High River. The deceased was 39 years of age and leaves a husband and five young sons to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. The funeral took place on Wednesday and burial was made at the burial grounds at Lomond.

Pte. Wilfred E. Green of Brant, of the R. C. R. in France, was wounded on Sept. 29th and admitted to the hospital suffering from a concussion of the head. May he quickly recover is the ardent wish of his friends.

ACCIDENT AT KIRKCALDY

Louis Selland, the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Selland, met with a bad accident yesterday, Tuesday. He was in the pump house working on the pump engine when he was caught in the belt. He was hauled with much force and thrown against the pipes, one of which was broken by the impact. Louis Selland received some bad cuts and was stunned. Fortunately no bones were broken and he is well on the way to recovery from his accident.

RED CROSS THANKSGIVING DINNER

The Kirkcaldy Red Cross Society will give a big Thanksgiving dinner on Monday, October 14th. The dinner will be served from 6 p. m. to 11 p. m. Adults 60c, children under 12 years of age 25c.

A social time is guaranteed in the evening, consisting of volunteer singing, instrumental music, speaking and games.

During the social evening a quilt donated by Mrs. Ed Pontney will be raffled, and a pig donated by Mrs. Engley will be auctioned. Everybody is asked to attend and help to make the evening a success.

ARE WE RESPONSIBLE

We read in a New York paper recently that the observance of Sept. 22 in that city as a "gasoline Sunday" was almost 100 per cent perfect. This paper cannot make anything like such a claim for this community, which leads us to enquire if we are less responsive to such appeals than our neighbors.

WHAT BRITAIN DID

Here is an item clipped from a British paper which will go to show how heavy were the drafts made on manhood in that Empire to fight the Hun:

W. H. Sawyer, aged 35, Grade I, who was given four months' exemption, stated that he had five brothers, all of whom had joined the army. Three had been killed, one had been reported missing, and the other was still at the front. The applicant had eight children under 14.

SAW THROUGH SCHEME

Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul, was a great American, who rendered a great service to America when he so strenuously opposed the creation of parochial schools which were to be used for the spread of German ideas in the United States. He saw the German menace in the movement and he exposed it and succeeded in combatting the entire scheme. "The mass of our Catholics are Americans" he declared with a fine spirit of patriotism. "They resent any attempt to make them Irishmen or Germans or any other kind of foreigners."

MONEY AT PREMIUM HERE

You may have noticed that the United States Money is now at a premium in Canada. A rate of two and one-half per cent is being charged on it at present, and the reason given by financial experts is that the balance of trade is so largely in favor of the United States that Canadian money has dropped. The law of supply and demand supplies to exchange as well as to other commodities, and until Canada can export more goods she will suffer in respect to money trading. United States funds, in other words, are an article of commerce, bought by Canadian banks, and according as the supply is plentiful or scarce a high or low rate is paid for them.

DESTROY TYPHOID GERMS

A level teaspoonful of chloride of lime should be rubbed into a teaspoon of water. This solution should be diluted with three cupfuls of water. Then add a teaspoonful of the whole quantity to each two-gallon pail of drinking water. In ten minutes, this will have destroyed all typhoid and dysentery-producing organisms in the water.

INSTITUTE OF CHILD WELFARE A SUCCESS

Interesting Addresses On All Phases Of Childhood By Local Authorities

A unique series of meetings under the auspices of the Alberta Social Service League were held in the Vulcan Church on Sunday and Monday. Nothing like it has ever been here to interesting and helpful along practical advice to the fathers and mothers of the town. The Rev. E. S. Bishop, who is child welfare secretary of the League gave an inspiring address on Sunday night, in which he showed up the gross carelessness of the public conscience on the duty of conserving the child life in its physical and moral and social qualities.

On Monday he took the child as a national asset, and astonished his audience with an array of statistics showing the fearful toll of criminal carelessness in child life. A soldier in the trenches today has a better chance to live than a baby. Every year in Alberta a town of 7,000 is wiped out by the absolutely preventable deaths of the potential population—the babies.

On Monday afternoon the mothers of the town attended a set of practical addresses on the problems of the new born baby, and were enthusiastic over the splendid helpful lectures of the local physicians, and demonstration by Miss Leverington.

Dr. Brown spoke on the proper prenatal care of the mother in a lucid, reverent and informing manner that assuredly was appreciated. Dr. Knowles followed logically in carrying on the subject into the treatment of the baby from birth to birthday in number one. His vein of satire as he showed how to avoid some serious blunders was delightful, and his points were well put. He expressed himself as very desirous that the Institute should become an annual affair.

Nurse Leverington had the whole array of baby's toilet needs and clothing there with a big celluloid doll as a sample baby. She went through her demonstration with a running commentary on the right way and the wrong of the bathing and dressing of an infant. It is the testimony of the secretary that the excellence of the doctors and nurse's addresses were not to be surpassed by any other town Institute. The babies were in evidence along with the mothers, which is as it should be.

Throughout the day an exhibit was on display, of Child Welfare and Infectious Diseases. Literature was freely distributed. If anyone desires a pamphlet explaining the proper prevention and treatment of contagious diseases, or on the baby, they may obtain the same from the local representative, the Rev. A. R. Schrag.

Mrs. Embree rendered a very appropriate solo, and her Sunday School choir of girls gave a couple of very acceptable choruses on Monday evening.

APPRECIATE ONE ANOTHER

The splendid attitude of the city of Boston in assisting the stricken city of Halifax when that city was destroyed last December by an explosion, commented and perpetuated a friendship that we will long remember. By way of retaliation a party of doctors and nurses from Halifax have gone to Boston to assist in coping with its influenza epidemic. These acts are both pleasant and creditable and is evidence of kindly relationship between two cities and we hope it will extend to all the people of both countries.

THE AMERICAN SPIRIT

That was the right spirit displayed by a negro soldier in the United States army who was asked at the railway station if he was going to France.

"No, sah! I se not going to France," he replied. "I se going to Berlin, but I may stop in France for a short time on de way."

PEACE, PEACE, WHEN THERE IS NO PEACE

Germany's peace offer will meet the repulse it deserves. It is the part of the bully to whine immediately his chances of mastery disappear. No thought or line of argument which we may at present pursue can lead to a conclusion consistent with consideration of Germany's offer. Her voice is as one crying in the wilderness, and the Allies will have none of it. Insult and brutality, rapine, destruction and murder have been for four years the German watchword. Must we listen to them now?

For four years the Allies have striven against the Germans and now when the sun of victory begins to gild the sky, the oppressor must needs cry "Halt" in the hope of staying the hands of justice and right.

The cry is in vain. Too long has the world suffered under the mentality of barbarism; a million voices cry out from the ground and the sea for retribution, and their cry is a thousand times more to be hearkened to than that of a crew of vainglorious swash-bucklers who feel their cause to be waning. Justice shall triumph, but it must also be made secure, and to be made secure the enemies of civilization must own decisive defeat, not a peace of their own making.

THE PEACE OFFENSIVE

The aftermath of each Allied success is invariably a peace move by the enemy. The Allied progress of the past weeks has placed the enemy at a disadvantage both from the military standpoint and in regard to the feeling of uneasiness among the people of Germany. The war has shown us how dependent upon the one is the other; the lower the military success the lower the tone of the people. As far as the military situation is concerned nothing can be done; the enemy is straining every nerve to withstand disaster, but something must be done to prevent a sense of defeat from taking hold on the people. And here the military party is face to face with a problem of its own manufacture, the problem of deception. To appreciate fully the task of the soothsayers of Germany it must be borne in mind that for the past four years they have heaped before their people a surfeit of promises of victory. At the outset circumstances coincided and all was promising fair. But as time went on the Allies gaining the upper hand and finally the initiative, promises faded and hope dwindled leaving but a chattering skeleton of defeat, the outcome of years of falsification. The fabric of falsehood has been torn away only to reveal to the German people the horrid realization of the truth, defeat. And now, since the prospect of victory is denied, the leaders turn to a new path, the one of throwing the onus of continuing the war upon the Allies. Offers of peace lacking entirely of any vestige of sincerity are held out and because the Allies refuse them the German people are asked to believe that it is the Allies who are responsible for the continuance of the war as a gainst the "pacific sentiment of Germany." Even now Austria-Hungary is on the peace path again, asking Holland to get the belligerents toward consideration of negotiations. How it will succeed we all know. The Mar despite his maneuvers, must be made to pay the price of his lawlessness. Peace offensives, "when there is no peace," are part of his brutal game but civilization cannot stay its hand until it has rendered impossible a similar outrage against itself.

PRODIGAL WASTE BY BIG EARNERS

Side by side with a good deal of thrift, there is a good deal of thriftlessness among us, just now. In the writer's immediate neighborhood in the East end of Toronto, and no doubt it is the same in other places, unthrift is quite as much in evidence as thrift.

It is surprising that this should be the case in this neighborhood, for it is one in which, only the year before the first year of the war, the people, very many of them, experienced the pinch of dire poverty. Work was scarce. Many who had bought their houses could not keep up the instalments, or pay the taxes due on them. Many who lived in rented houses could not pay their rent. Yet, although this was only between four and five years ago, many of the people who suffered most have already forgotten that then they went hungry and in most cases, almost starving. They don't realize that what then was may be again. They think that the present boom for wages are quite abnormally high will last for ever.

It is a sad case. A certain man who, four or five years ago, lacked food and all the necessities of life, is today making big money at munitions. He is not putting by a cent. In the three years and more during which he has been working on munitions, he has bought himself two cars. His first car didn't last long. He gave the poor thing no rest. When it was "all in" he bought another. Yet this man will edge for clothes for his children, and send his children to the school dentist.

Now when the call is for economy, many women, whose husbands are making big money, are outrageously extravagant in clothes. One of them in the same locality is so in love with fine clothes that she was seen wearing a silk dress when scrubbing the floor.

Until her husband got his present $50 a week job, they had never had more than $20 a week to get along on. They have nothing saved (as she admits) and if the man was out of a job tomorrow, all they would have to show as resultant from their present prosperity would be a quantity of partly-worn fine clothes.

Many families are literally eating up their big earnings. One that I know well give $9.50 for a leg of lamb for Sunday dinner. The father takes to work for his lunch, sliced ham bought cooked at a store, for which a big price is paid. The butcher who serves them says he could not begin to afford the expensive food they consume in large quantities.

War-time prosperity is just giving them a good time—for a time. What of the "lean years" that may be ahead of them? In the cases mentioned, and they are typical of very many in this one neighborhood, no provision whatever is being made for them.

SIGN UP FOR THE HOSPITAL

The petition for the sounding of opinion on the question of a municipal hospital to be situated in Vulcan are being circulated. It is hoped that everyone to whom they are presented will readily give their support to the idea. It is useless for us to dwell on the need of such an institution; almost every week bears eloquent testimony to that; nor should a question of expense debar support, for we need the hospital worse than we need the money. So give the hospital all the support you can and get your neighbour to do the same.

Leige, Lille and Lens. The Allies are certainly knocking the "L" out of the Hindenburg line.

The war news gets better every day. At the present rate of progress the Rhine gets closer every day.

At one time the Kaiser wanted a place in the sun. Now he has all he can do to get a place in the League of Nations.

You cannot keep the germs under. At one time it was German propaganda; now it is Spanish influenza.

The Bulgarian Czar, tired of his job, has passed his crown on to his son. Whatever may be said for or against the latter his pluck is to be admired.

Once again we have another peace offensive from the Central powers. But there is not much to be expected from it until the Hun is put in his place.

And now it is almost certain that the Turks will be driven out of Europe into Asia. The only thing to be said against this is that it is hard lines on other Asiatics.

The failure of the U. S. senate to endorse votes for women is to be regretted especially at present when women are performing such valuable and indispensable work for the cause of democracy.

The fellow who tried to shoot up the town of Vulcan on Stampede day added the final touch of the wild and woolly west to the proceedings. Had the mounties been around there would have been a police court sequel. As it was there was a get-away.

Delmonico's, the swell restaurant of New York, is in the hands of the receivers as a result of the war economy practised by wealthy New Yorkers. How different might have been the result had the place been managed by some of those eastern Canadian caterers.

While the German war lords are telling their docile people that the American army on the western front can never amount to anything, news from Washington says that there are 1,800,000 U. S. troops overseas; time will tell which is right, the German or the American.

This is a sentence in the official report of General Allenby's Palestine operations:

On the north our cavalry, traversing the field of Armageddon, had occupied Nazareth.

Few words have been more frequently used in writing of the war than "Armageddon." Now the war has moved to the actual place which gave its name to what is supposed to be the final struggle between good and evil. The plain lies to the southwest of Nazareth, and was the scene of many battles—of the defeat of the Canaanites by Barak, of the Gibeonites by Midian, of Saul by the Philistines and of Josiah by the Egyptians. Its associations were such that the reference to it in the sixteenth chapter of Revelations, which has led to its modern use, was not unnatural.

At a meeting of the Geographical Society in London. England, the Hon. Arthur Meighen, speaking on the resources of Canada, made the statement that one-fifth of our railway tonnage is taken up in the hauling of coal.

Speaking of our water powers he said one-horse power is estimated for power purposes as of fuel value of ten tons of coal. We use in Canada annually in the form of water power the equivalent of 14,600,000 tons of coal. We export to the United States 275,000 H. P., the equivalent of our total anthracite importation.

JUST LIKE THE HUN

We always had a hunch that the miserable Hun would endeavor to capitate the moment he saw the tide had turned. He was being trounced good and plenty as a Paris announcement issued on Oct. 3 would indicate. Between July 15 and Sept. 30 the Allies captured 5,518 Hun officers and 248,494 men, 3,669 cannons and more than 23,000 machine guns. With a quarter of million prisoners taken, the total casualties for the period must be in the neighborhood of a million. Germany's man power is certainly on the wane, hence their desire for peace.

BLACKIE NEWS

At a meeting of the business men of Blackie on Monday evening, the Blackie businessmen's association was formed, with the following officers:

President, P. T. Goulter,
Vice-President, L. L. McDonald,
Secretary, V. E. Hessel.

After a full discussion on the part of those present it was decided that every place of business would be closed on Thanksgiving Day. This will include, storekeepers, garages, Jacksmithshops, grain elevators, lumber yards, etc. etc., etc.

Thanksgiving falls on Monday, Oct. 14th, and on that date every place of business is Blackie will be closed.

The people of Mezeppa, Gladys, Dinton, Glenview, Mossleigh, Herron and Frankburg districts are notified that every place of business will be closed on Thanksgiving Day. Do not ask any of them to break faith with their competitors.

The special services, conducted by Rev. H. A. Barton, got a splendid start last Sunday. A good congregation listened to a fine address on Evangelism. Mr. Barton will be holding evangelistic meetings every night in his rest room at 8:30. Short, lively, crisp services will be the order of the day. Next Sunday at 3:00, he is going to give a sermon-lecture on "Thinking: Black, White or Gray." We feel sure it will be a helpful and interesting lecture.

The Public Utilities Commissioners have authorized the borrowing of $4,000.00 by the Frankland School District for the erection of a public school in Frankburg. It will be remembered that fire destroyed the old school over a year ago.

Many British living in Canada will be interested to know that the Bishop of Manchester, who is now on this side of the Atlantic will tour Canada from coast to coast and will address public meetings at leading centres. He will appear under the auspices of the British bureau of public information.

SOLDIERS SHOULD DECIDE

Let the soldiers overseas decide as to the question of peace with Germany. They are the men who are capable of knowing what is best. Let them decide the issue, not selfish politicians, who have some ulterior motion in view.

Returned soldiers will tell you that the only way to bring about real peace is to fight till complete victory is won. No matter what Germany may say or do we cannot trust her. It is still an autocratic militarism and the only way to make the world safe from it is to crush the cruel forces from which it derives its strength.

MEN EXEMPTED AS FARMERS

Having in view the importance of leaving a sufficient number of men on those farms, which are actually contributing to the National Food Supply, notice is hereby given as follows:

1. ALL MEMBERS OF CLASS I POSSESSING EXEMPTION AS FARMERS which is expiring and WHO WISH TO REMAIN EXEMPT should communicate with the Registrars under the M.S.A., of their respective districts, REQUESTING AN EXTENSION IN TIME OF SUCH EXEMPTION. Questionnaires will thereupon be issued to these men by the Registrar and they will receive further exemption upon furnishing satisfactory proof that they are contributing sufficiently to the National Food Supply.

2. In order to facilitate productive employment during the Winter months, MEN EXEMPTED AS FARMERS SHOULD APPLY TO THE REGISTRARS FOR PERMITS TO ENGAGE FOR THE WINTER IN SOME OCCUPATION OF NATIONAL INTEREST, SUCH AS LUMBERING, MUNITION WORK, ETC. Such permits will serve to enable exempted farmers to pursue other useful occupations for the months during which farming operations cannot be carried on.

SUBJECT

A Hurried Trip through the Western Front

A collection in aid of Red Cross funds will be taken at the door

Fellow Canadians!

"YOU who spend as much or more on your enjoyment—who indulge in as many of the good things of life as you ever did—you who buy what you want to, eat what you fancy, go where you please—who deny yourselves nothing—how much real thought do you give to the winning of the war?"

"You know what we have to put up with. Do you think we could stand it all—the homesickness, the untold misery, and the terrible fighting—if we dreamed 'over there' that you were trifling with this war, that you were spending money on frivolous things?"

"Don't you see that every time you spend a dollar on a thing you don't really need you are using the labor of a man who should be either fighting or making something that will help us—your soldiers—to fight?"

"Oh, you chaps with money in your pockets and comfort in your homes and love of ease cankering your souls,—if you could know as I know all that war means, you'd stint yourselves down to the barest necessities, so that Canada's money and Canada's material and Canada's labor could all go into guns and shells and equipment for our boys in France to fight with!"

M. H. O. GIVES INFORMATION

The Medical Health officer, Dr. R.K. Knowles, issues the following in regard to typhoid, of which there are cases in the district:

Typhoid fever presents many problems, but the most important is prevention. Too little attention has been paid to this in the past.

Infected water and milk carry typhoid, but it is necessary to go deeper than this and find out how the water became infected, and prevent this. Typhoid bacteria do not naturally inhabit milk or water. Their natural host is man, and if proper care is used cannot contaminate foods. If every typhoid bacillus was killed as it left its victim the typhoid menace would be at an end.

One of the difficulties in the way that many cases of typhoid are so mild that they are never recognized, and hence are of course a great source of danger. Nevertheless, the more thorough is the disinfection and cleaning up after each patient the fewer will be unrecognized cases be.

The methods can be divided under three headings: (1) general measures, (2) care of the patient, (3) typhoid inoculation.

Among general measures and most important is cleanliness, and this crystallizes down into the necessity of the extinction of flies.

All manure, garbage, rubbish, privies or filth of any kind should be removed, screened or destroyed. Garbage should be tightly covered; privies should be screened. An early start is desirable. A few flies killed early in the spring will prevent many thousands in the summer.

The next step is to have the house doors, etc. screened with muslin; windows are cheap and effective.

Screen doors should be provided, and when opened, care should be taken to keep all flies away.

The next step is to destroy all flies that get in the house. If they are few a energetic housewife can easily get rid of them with a duster, or ordinary can of fly swatter. Sticky fly paper is very effective, and in the rolls, may be hung from the ceiling or pinned to curtains to be out of the way. Fly traps, as a rule, are not very effective.

Should there be many flies, they can be killed quickly by closing the door and windows and dusting pyrethrum or Persian insect powder around the room, or burning the powder. This suffices the flies and is harmless to people. The flies can then be swept up and destroyed. Be sure to use only fresh powder, and keep it well covered, as it quickly deteriorates. Formaldehyde solution—one tablespoon to a pint of sweetened water or milk. This, however, is dangerous to children and pet animals, which should be considered. Small quantities can be used, and placed out of reach of children. Good results are frequently obtained by using this just outside a screened window or door, particularly before a rain storm, or when flies are unusually troublesome.

Another article dealing with the prevention of typhoid fever will appear in next week's issue.

Moved that this meeting adjourn to meet again at the Lake McGregor School House, Saturday, Dec. 7, 1918. Carried.

Is your land in such condition that it will drift next spring with heavy winds? If so it would be playing safe between now and freeze-up, to so handle this land that it will not be subject to the effects of high winds.

How about preparing that summer-fallow so it will not drift next spring? Spreading well rotted manure thinly over the field will be one way of preventing drifting. Packing the land will be another. If possible, let the stock on to clean up any fall growth. They will pack the land better than any other method.

The feed situation is not serious in the Cayley district, it has improved greatly in the last few weeks. Several cars of cattle which have been shipped from there sold for $14.75 at the shipping point. Grain shipments from Nanton, Alta., for the year ending August 31, totalled 543,720 bushels wheat, 294,013 bushels of other grains. It is estimated that the shipments this year will not exceed 400,000 bushels all told.

FARMERETS TAKE AGRICULTURAL COURSE AT OLDS

In view of the fact that so many young men have been called to the colors, there is a growing tendency among farmer's daughters and others to take up the profession of agriculture. Last year some thirty or forty of these young Farmerettes attended the Guelph Agricultural College in Ontario. In Alberta too there is the same tendency among patriotic young women to step into the position made vacant by reason of the fact that brothers have gone to the front. For the past two years young ladies have been taking the straight Agricultural Course at the Provincial School of Agriculture, Olds, Alberta. In most instances the heavier work such as blacksmithing, etc., has not been taken by the young ladies. In one case, however, a young lady, Miss Erma Poedler, (now Mrs. Nelson, Cluny) took the complete course. Under ordinary circumstances it is not necessary for young ladies to take the heavier class of work, but there is no reason whatever, why young ladies who have to live on the farm should not be as interested in the stock and in fact every phase of the farm work, as are the men. The veterinary course appeals to many young girls who have a liking for stock, and in instances the girl makes a far better nurse in the case of sick animals on the farm than does a man. Many farmers daughters have a decided liking for the live stock, and in fact for all out of door work on the farm. A course at a Provincial School of Agriculture is the very thing that many young ladies are looking forward to, and it is gratifying to know that a considerable number are applying for agricultural work during the coming winter.

The Military Service Act has taken a great many of the young men who otherwise might have attended the Olds Agricultural School, during the coming winter, but it is surprising how many boys of sixteen, seventeen and eighteen are applying for admission this fall. Already thirty applications for admission have been received by the school of Agriculture at Olds, and we presume an equal number have applied at Vermillion and Claresholm. Last fall students were turned away from the Olds School because the utmost capacity of the school had been reached. Present indications are that there will be from 75 to 100 students enroll in the Agricultural and Household Science classes during the coming winter.

A subject that is giving special attention in the Household Science work is the course in Home Nursing, which is given by a trained nurse. All farmers and their wives who live a considerable distance from a doctor, know just how important that work is for the young girls who live on the farms. In addition, of course, there is the cooking, sewing, household administration, English, Mathematics, Science, etc. that is given to make a well rounded course for the girls.

Many have written in asking if the tuition fee has been increased to keep pace with the high cost of everything else. To these we would say that there are no tuition fees whatever, the school course is entirely free. Books and note books will cost from $4.00 to $7.00 for the whole winter. In addition a cafeteria fee of $7.00 is asked to cover any breakage.

The students, of course, pay for their room and board. This will cost from $25.00 to $35.00 per week depending somewhat on the accommodation provided.

To the young people who are taking the place on the farms made vacant by an older brother who has gone to the front, we need only say that the younger the shoulders that assume the responsibilities of our western agriculture the better and more thorough ought to be the training.

A GENTLE HINT

No doubt our readers have read in the daily papers about the increase in newspaper stock and have seen it recorded that many country newspapers will be compelled to shut up shop in consequence. Now we don't feel a bit alarmed here, because we know that a district such as ours, isn't going to allow itself to be without a newspaper for the sake of a few cents a week. We won't want to have to telephone the news around, would we? We cannot say for sure just yet, but it looks as if this paper is going to be compelled to pay up all arrears and a little in advance, so that you can starve off the extra 50 cents for a year anyway.

Secretaries of all organizations, submitting matter and reports for publication in this paper, are particularly requested to tabulate such and to make and write the same distinctly and plain, so that it can be correctly read and printed and thus avoid mistakes which are often the cause of such misinterpretation.

ALARM CLOCKS

Over in England there is a scarcity of Alarm Clocks. Before the war you could buy a cheap clock in England for from 70c. to 1.35. They are now selling from $3. to $3.75. Better grades such as 'BIG BEN' are readily sold at one Guinea, or $5.10.

You are not asked to pay such prices here. We have Alarm Clocks at $3.00 to $4.00 all guaranteed. Let us sell you your next 'BIG BEN'

The ladies of the Queenstown Women's Institute, inspired by a desire to help the cause of the soldier by doing something for the Red Cross, have published a cook book. All the receipts, gathered by themselves, are war receipts, designed to save and conserve the food, so the book serves the double purpose of helping the Red Cross and helping the food situation. The book is called the

And can be obtained from any of the members of the members of the Institute or at the Advocate. Price $1.00.
